

April Board Meeting

April 27, 2009

Members present: Maureen Jouett, President; Kathy Clark-Jones, Publicity Chair; Paul Brice, Secretary; Dick Young, President Elect

The meeting was called to order by President Jouett at 12:55.

- The Harker Heights Library Director has requested a Freedom Shrine for the new library. Kathy Clark-Jones moved we place one there and Dick Young seconded the motion. It was approved unanimously.

- No one ran for the Treasurer post at the recent election but Richard Jouett has volunteered to take on the job. President Jouett has appointed him to the position and the appointment was ratified unanimously.

- The Club has experienced a decline in income during the current which will create the need to curtail programs in the coming fiscal year. In light of this there was discussion as to whether the unused portion of the current Child Abuse Prevention budget should be left unspent. The attendees agreed that this is a major program of the Club and while it may have to be reduced in the future funds are available for the current year. Therefore

YOUTH OF THE YEAR

This year's youth of the year scholarship went to Harker Heights student Kelcey Bacon and Killeen High School student Aaron Ray Dallman. Our ACE honoree was Celiangelly Frias. Youth of the Year students were in competition with other students of the quarter for the honor. ACE award students were solicited from Communities In Schools counselors. Each honored student received a scholarship for $1000.
