City Budget

Killeen City Manager Connie Green explained the city of Killeen's budget and plan of services to club members. He discussed major projects that were being done and how the city council plans to fund the project. He emphasized the importance of safety to the citizens and expressed the city's desire to provide the officers required to help keep our crime rate down. He also advised of the plans additional personnel to support the facilities is something that is being handled in the operations budget of the city of Killeen.

Club members asked several questions regarding tax rate which was projected to remain the same at 69.5 cents per $100 evaluation..
