

SANTA VISITS EXCHANGE PROGRAM

The members of the Exchange Club of Killeen held their annual "Santa Visit's Exchange" program on December 15. Club members gave away $500 to the USO Fort Hood, $1000 to the Sunshine Special Olympics, $1000 to the Greater Killeen Free Clinic, and $450 to the Killeen Crime Stoppers in the form of 1/2 rental space on storage unit. The club was also recognized for the contribution they give to the Central Texas Boy's & Girl's Club that comes directly out of our charitable bingo operations. The total contribution to them was $12,250 plus a pledged contribution of $10,000 that was paid earlier this year.

The club members received a special treat from club member and East Ward Elementary School Principal Ms. JoLynette Crayton. Ms. Crayton brought her music teacher and a few students to sing a medley of Christmas carols to the club members. As our Adopt-A-School, East Ward Elementary received $400 in cash and a $50 Wal-Mart gift card earlier this year.

Ms. Crayton was sworn in to the club by club President Maureen Jouett and was pinned by her sponsor, John Odom.

The club members have been sponsoring this worthwhile activity for nearly two decades. Former club member Mick Lanham was instrumental in getting us involved and we continued to make the annual contributions after he passed in early 2000.
