

POLITICAL FORUM:

Members of the Exchange Club of Killeen hosted a political forum for the upcoming county, state and federal elections. Those who were able to attend were running for state offices only. Texas District 54 State Representative Jimmie Don Aycock attended. Candidates for Texas District 55 State Representative Danny Daniel and Sam Murphey attended. Ralph Sheffield sent a surrogate, Colonel Scott Shepherd to speak on his behalf. Everyone was allowed a three minute introduction. Candidates were allowed one minute to answer questions. Members from the Killeen Daily Herald and the Temple Daily Telegram were in attendance

MAKE A DIFFERENCE DAY-NATIONAL DAY OF SERVICE PROJECT

Club members donated $10 each for a total of $430.00. A check for $430 was presented to Gerald Farris, Co-Director for our Killeen (Left to right above) Gerald Farris, Richard Jouett, Gerald Skidmore, Larry Holly and Maureen Jouett) Food Care Center at 11 am, October 25. The Center can purchase a case of food for just $4. With our donation they can purchase nearly 108 cases of food, feeding plenty of hungry people.

The club members have supported Make A Difference Day activities for several years with project selection being completed when the budget is voted on in June of each year.

Harker Heights Police Officer and Fire/Rescue Officer of the Year

Members of the Exchange Club of Killeen honored the Harker Heights Fire/Rescue Officer of the Year Frank Adams. Officer Adams was presented with a check for $150 and a plaque for his outstanding service. The club also hosted several members of the Harker Heights fire department who came to support Officer Adams. Richard Jouett presented the check and plaque to Officer Adams.

Members of the Exchange Club of Killeen honored the Harker Heights Police Officer of the Year Jerry Dugger. Officer Dugger was credited with a drug bust that eliminated the largest one person drug ring in Bell County. Officer Dugger received a check for $150 and a plaque for his dedicated service. The club also hosted several members from the Harker Heights Police Department who came to support him. Officer Dugger was given his check and plaque by his father, club member Jerry Dugger. Jerry's father was a charter member of the club when it began on 4-15-1955. (See OOO pictures on Page 2)
